As the western world moves away from nonsensical political correctness, Canada is digging in. Recent elections in the UK and America show that people are tired of ignoring the elephant in the room, the fact that radical Islam is the greatest threat to peace. Of course no reasonable person believes that all Muslims are a threat, but no reasonable person would state that Islamic terrorists are not Islamic. Also, Canada already has hate speech laws protecting everyone, including Muslims.

Motion 103 is Unfair

In November, Prime Minister Trudeau had one of his MP's introduce Motion 103 along with Petition E-411. Islamic Member of Parliament Iqra Khalid has put together a thinly veiled motion to require the government to pass laws to make it illegal to criticize Islam. Sure, she includes a blanket statement "to condemn Islamophobia and all forms of systemic racism and religious discrimination" but Islam is the only faith stated.

One Sided

Ms. Khalid's one sided motion goes on to "take note of House of Commons' petition e-411 and the issues raised by it; and (c ) request that the Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage undertake a study on how the government could (i) develop a whole-of-government approach to reducing or eliminating systemic racism and religious discrimination including Islamophobia." The petition and motion were introduced simultaneously.

Factually Wrong

Not only is the motion unfair, it is also factually wrong. The petition, upon which the government must act states "Recently an infinitesimally small number of extremist individuals have conducted terrorist activities while claiming to speak for the religion of Islam." This is absurd. Al Jazeera conducted an Arabic poll and the result was "overwhelming support for the Islamic State terrorist group, with 81% voting 'YES' on whether they approved of ISIS's conquests in the region." Numerous similar polls show widespread support for Islamic terrorists across the Muslim world. After 9/11 Osama became the second most popular name for newborns in the U.K. A French poll indicates ISIS has an approval rating in France (at 16%) almost as high as President Francois Holland (at 18%).

It is nonsensical to order the government to act upon such words that attempt to eradicate the explicit connection between Islamic Terrorism and Islam. If most of the world's Muslims would resoundingly declare that Osama Bin Ladin and ISIS are evil, then such an argument could be established. But that is not the case. Almost all Middle East Muslim countries have similar anti-blaspemy laws with penalties ranging from prison to death. Now Trudeau wants to implement similar laws in Canada.

Anti-Blasphemy Law

This motion repeatedly calls for actions to stop Islamophobia without a limited definition of the term. If you look at the Oxford dictionary you find the definition to be "dislike of or prejudice against Islam or Muslims, especially as a political force" Will the new law be that if you dislike Islam, Sharia law or its political force then you can face a hate crime charge under section 318 of the criminal code with up to a 2 year prison term? God help us.

It appears that all parties will support Trudeau's plan with no opposition from the new liberal light Conservatives under leader Rona Ambrose.

I urge you to fight Motion 103 with us by:
